

Running order for the 2026 Youth Changemaker Celebration and Pitch night.

Wednesday 15th July from 6pm onwards at Hatcham House, 367 Queens Road, SE14 5HD

We are expecting 70 guests for our event at HH and want to stick to a strict 1.5-hour programme

| Time | Activity                                                                                              | Notes                                                                            |
|------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 6pm  | Guests start to arriveGuests given free welcome non-alcoholic drink and programme for the evening | All CMs to help welcome and mingle with guestsFW staff help serve the drinks |
| 6.pm | Rowan plays background music                                                                          | Steve to set up PA and Mic.                                                      |
| 6.30 | Councillor Shireen Asaw Lewisham Cabinet Member for Workers, Business & Skills                        | Rikefe introduces her to some of the young CMs                                   |
| 6.50 | Guests asked to take their seats                                                                      | Video montage starts                                                             |

| Time             | Activity                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Notes                                                                       |
|------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7.pm             | Steve welcomes Cllr Asaw, the CMs and Jade Barnett and outlines how the evening will work.                                                                                                               | 3 minutes                                                                   |
| 7.10             | Cllr Asaw – What is Lewisham doing in relation to youth job creation and support?                                                                                                                        | 5 minutes                                                                   |
| 7.15             | Steve introduces the PITCH Judging Pannel: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Spike/Mark</li> <li>Caroline/Emma (4Isolutions)</li> <li>Krystal (past CM)</li> <li>Leeanna (Pristine Eats)</li> </ul> | “What is the one thing are you looking for in judging this year’s winners?” |
| 7.20PITCH 1  | Steve introduces DemiDemi’s video playedDemi 2 minutes to ad                                                                                                                              | Demi then takes questions from the Judging panel                            |
| 7.30PITCH -2 | Rikefe introduces DeshaunDeshaun’s video playedDeshaun has 2 minutes to add                                                                                                               | Dashun takes questions from the Judging Panel.                              |
| 7.40PITCH -3 | Stephen introduces LollyLolly’s video is playedLollys has 2 minutes to add                                                                                                                | Lolly then takes questions from the Judging Panel.                          |
| 7.50PITCH -4 | Rikefe introduces RowanRowan’s video playedRowan has 2 minutes to add                                                                                                                     | Rowan then takes questions from the Judging Panel.                          |
| 8.00PITCH -5 | Stephen introduces AngelAngel’s video is playedAngel has 2 minutes to add                                                                                                                 | Angel takes questions from the judging panel.                               |
| 8.10PITCH 6  | Stephen introduces EnezInterview – no video                                                                                                                                                   | Enez takes questions from the Judging Panel                                 |
| 8.20             | Jade Barnett Keynote speechWhat do young people need in today’s Jobmarket?                                                                                                      | 10 mins                                                                     |
| 8.30             | Stephen thanks Jade                                                                                                                                                                                      | Judging panel deliberate -3 mins                                            |
| 8.35             | Final reflections – Mayor Liam Shrivastava                                                                                                                                                        | Spike to fill in if necessary                                               |
| 8.40             | Announcement of Funding awarded and certificates presentation                                                                                                                                            |                                                                             |
| 8.50             | Drinks and group photo                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                             |
| 9.30             | Last guests leave                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                             |